In the 1960s, the average new car had a fuel efficiency of about 9.0 miles per gallon. By the end of the last decade, the average was 5.4 miles per gallon. As of 2012, a new car in the U.S. is expected to have about a 19.0 miles per gallon average. Moreover, as the U.S. becomes an oil-based economy, the country is also becoming less dependent on foreign oil. Modern day superheroes can be also referred to as crime fighters or vigilantes. New superheroes exist today. The New Age of super heroes is a group of superheroes that are said to be real world superheroes. Super heroes as we know them are often depicted as superheroes in comic books. Every superhero has both a secret identity and a public identity. The aspect of the public identity is typically the one in which the hero is most commonly known. To hide their secret identity the heroes typically use either government issued or private outfits that show they are superheroes but are not flashy enough for the public to know who they really are. The aspect of the secret identity is the aspect of the identity that the character is most scared of forgetting, or other person that can expose their identity. Superheroes also typically have a team or assist them in their endeavors. - Apple Music plus 4K with HDR+ from the WELL REALISED MAY 2021. ModemenVersion F1.0.1.1.2.2.
